THE PASTORS’ CORNER

“The Lord has given me a well-trained tongue that I may know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. The Lord God is my help therefore, I am not disgraced. I have set my face like flint knowing that I will not be put to shame, Because of this God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every other name, that at the name of Jesus every knee must bend.”

May the words of Isaiah and Paul help set the stage for our Holy Week. The gospel of Mark provides details of the passion not just to provide information but to rouse ordinariness and us to break from routine and appreciate the saving mystery of salvation.

We may read and reflect upon the scriptures and find great meaning as we live in 2018. The suffering servants are those displaced by war and the natural disasters. Those trying Christ are the oppressors, attacking Christians in various parts of the world as the Sudan, Syria and Nigeria. The passion of Christ continues today when wars rage, poverty grows, exploitation reigns, and worst of all, indifference to suffering continues.

We are called this week to die and rise with the Christ. Pope Francis has asked that we not be robbed of our missionary enthusiasm. He tells us not to look the other way but to address the cause, as well as the effects, out of concern for those who are marginalized and suffering. May this be a new approach to Holy Week.

EL RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

El mismo Señor me ha dado una lengua de discípulo, para que yo sepa reconfortar al fatigado con una palabra de aliento. El Señor viene en mi ayuda: por eso, no quedé confundido. Endurecí mi rostro como el pedernal, y sé muy bien que no seré defraudado... Por eso, Dios lo exaltó y le dio el Nombre que está sobre todo nombre, para que al nombre de Jesús, se doble toda rodilla en el cielo, en la tierra y en los abismos.

Que las palabras de Isaías y San Pablo preparen el camino de nuestra Semana Santa. El evangelio de San Marcos provee detalles de la pasión no sólo para informar sino para motivarnos a romper la rutina y lo ordinario y apreciar el gran misterio de la salvación.

Puede que leamos y reflexionemos sobre las escrituras y encontremos gran significado al vivir el 2018. Los siervos que sufren son aquellos desplazados por la guerra y desastres naturales. Aquellos probando a Jesús son los opresores, atacando a cristianos en varias partes del mundo, como Sudán, Siria y Nigeria. La pasión de Cristo continúa hoy cuando las guerras arrasan, la pobreza crece, la explotación reina y peor de todo, la indiferencia al sufrimiento continúa.

Estamos llamados esta semana a morir y resucitar con el Cristo. El Papa Francisco ha pedido que no se nos robe nuestro entusiasmo misionero. Nos dice que no volteemos la mirada sino que encaremos la causa, así como los efectos, por compasión por aquellos que han sido marginados y sufren. Ojalá ésta pueda ser una nueva forma de abordar la Semana Santa.

POPE'S INTENTION FOR MARCH

Evangelization – Formation in Spiritual Discernment

That the Church may appreciate the urgency of formation in spiritual discernment, both on the personal and communitarian levels.

Formación en el Discernimiento Espiritual

El Santo Padre pide orar en marzo por la formación en el discernimiento espiritual, “para que toda la Iglesia reconozca la urgencia de la formación en el discernimiento espiritual, en el plano personal y comunitario.
