THE PASTOR'S CORNER

"Brothers and sisters: I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'"

Words so familiar, accompanied by the gestures of looking up, thanking, breaking and giving. Every Eucharist the words of Paul and of Jesus at the last supper echo in our ears.

We might be surprised to know that Paul's teaching of the Corinthians, predates the last supper accounts in the gospels. It was already known, repeated and celebrated. How interesting, we call that a 'tradition', a handing over. Paul uses the word twice in a different way. He hands the story to his disciples, and describes the handing over of Jesus for the passion.

The great gift of the Eucharist brings us together with the Lord, forming a relationship with Him, making us one with each other and permits us to acknowledge a living Presence among us. At every mass, in every tabernacle, the Lord is present to be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection.

Remember the person who met Philip and said 'Sir, we would like to see Jesus?'

He is here.

¡INSCRIPCIONES ABIERTAS!

Reconociendo la necesidad crítica de brindar desarrollo espiritual, académico y emocional a los estudiantes que se están recuperando de la adicción, la Diócesis de Allentown abrirá la primera escuela secundaria de recuperación en la nación, basada en la fe. Kolbe Academy, que abrirá sus puertas en la antigua St. Francis Academy en Bethlehem, PA, en el mes de agosto, está inscribiendo a estudiantes necesitados para el otoño de 2019 de todos los credos, en los cinco condados de la Diócesis: Berks, Carbon, Lehigh, Northampton y Schuylkill, y más allá. Kolbe Academy atenderá a los estudiantes de los grados 9, 10, 11 y 12 y proporcionará una educación católica de calidad, que cumpla con los requisitos estatales para la graduación de la escuela secundaria y sustenta y nutre el espíritu de cada estudiante en su viaje de recuperación. Para obtener más información, visite el sitio web de la escuela en www.kolbe-academy.com o envíe un correo electrónico al Director Petruzzelli sobre la inscripción en principal@kolbe-academy.com.

EL RINCON DEL PARROCO

“Hermanos: Lo que yo recibí del Señor, y a mi vez les he transmitido, es lo siguiente: El Señor Jesús, la noche en que fue entregado, tomó el pan, dio gracias, lo partió y dijo: ‘Esto es mi Cuerpo, que se entrega por ustedes. Hagan esto en memoria mía.’”

Palabras tan familiares, acompañadas de gestos de alzar la vista, dar gracias, partir y dar. En cada eucaristía, las palabras de Jesús y las de san Pablo hacen eco en nuestros oídos.

Nos sorprendería enterarnos de que las enseñanzas de San Pablo a los corintios anteceden a los relatos de la Última Cena de los evangelios. Ya era conocido, repetido y celebrado. Es interesante que lo llamemos ‘tradición’, un traspaso. San Pablo utiliza esta noción de traspaso dos veces en diferente forma. Él les transmite la historia a sus discípulos y describe la entrega de Jesús para la pasión.

El gran don de la eucaristía nos une al Señor, formando una relación con Él, haciéndonos uno el uno con el otro y permitiéndonos reconocer una Presencia viva entre nosotros. En cada misa, en cada tabernáculo, el Señor está presente para ser alabado, adorado y amado con amorosa gratitud. ¿Recuerda a la persona que le dijo a Felipe: ‘Señor, queremos ver a Jesús’? Él está aquí.
