THE PASTORS' CORNER

“Go instead to the merchants and buy some oil for yourselves.’ While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the doors were locked. Afterwards the others came and said, ‘Lord, Lord, open the door for us.’ But he said in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.’ Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

How often we hear the expression ‘this is a wakeup call.’ It might call us to study harder, begin a healthier life style, or even to express gratitude for escaping an accident or tragedy.

The parable of Jesus, who many have read this year, is directed to me today. How ready and prepared am I to accompany the Lord, who is walking with me today. The lamp oil is God’s grace. Is it burning in me, at this moment? If the battery is low, where can I have it recharged? God’s grace we find in the sacraments.

How often we have been offered the example of a door, as opening the door of our hearts to the Lord, or He Himself knocking at the door wanting to enter. He is the gatekeeper. A door allows entrance to another place.

Don’t put off applying the parallel to your own spiritual life. It is my wakeup call.

EL RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

“Es mejor que vayan a comprarlo al mercado’. Mientras tanto, llegó el esposo: las que estaban preparadas entraron con él en la sala nupcial y se cerró la puerta. Después llegaron las otras jóvenes y dijeron: ‘Señor, señor, ábrenos’, pero él respondió: ‘Les aseguro que no las conozco’. Estén prevenidos, porque no saben el día ni la hora.”

A menudo escuchamos la expresión: ‘Es una llamada de atención.’ Puede que nos llame a estudiar más duro, cambiar nuestro estilo de vida, o a expresar gratitud por escapar de un accidente o tragedia.

La parábola de Jesús, de las cuales hemos leído muchas este año, está dirigida a mí. ¿Qué tan listo y preparado estoy para acompañar al Señor, quien camina junto a mí hoy? La lámpara de aceite es la gracia de Dios. ¿Arde en mí en este momento? Si las baterías están bajas, dónde puedo recargarlas? Encontramos la gracia de Dios en los sacramentos.

A menudo se nos ofrece el ejemplo de una puerta, tal como abrir la puerta de nuestros corazones al Señor; o El llamando a nuestras puertas deseando entrar. Él es el portero. La puerta permite la entrada a otro lugar.

No retrase el aplicar este ejemplo a su propia vida espiritual. Esta es mi llamada de atención.
