THE PASTORS’ CORNER

"Dear God, Thank you for your amazing power and work in our lives, thank you for your goodness and for your blessings over us. Thank you for your great love and care. Thank you for your sacrifice so that we might have freedom and life. Forgive us for when we do not thank you enough, for who you are, for all that you do, for all that you have given. Help us to set our eyes and our hearts on you afresh. Renew our spirits; fill us with your peace and joy. We love you and we need you, this day and every day. We give you praise and thanks, for You alone are worthy! In Jesus' Name,

Amen."

“When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her has an unfailing prize. She brings him good and not evil all the days of her life... She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy.”

The teaching of the book of Proverbs is both profound and practical. It opens our eyes to appreciate the gifts we already possess, and often overlook.

We are reminded that the fundamental message of Jesus is love, and its expression is found in respect. When we work to make both part of our lived experience at home, with others, or even in a quiet moment of appreciation, then we begin to appreciate once again, how special we are with a good wife, a loving husband, faithful friends.

Unfortunately, we sometimes fail to recognize how important it is to improve our family life, to work at it as a primary goal, so that God’s peace, presence and happiness are found behind our front door. They become a driving force in our lives. Now is the time to begin.

Is Christ part of our lived experience? Is prayer something I bring to my family on a daily basis? Do I reflect joy, ask for forgiveness, and show my concern and interest in what my children are doing?

I recall a picture hanging in a home with the face of Christ. Beneath it was written, ‘Christ is the head of this house, the guest who becomes our host at every meal, the silent listener to every conversation.’ Is this my experience? May we appreciate what Proverbs teaches us today.

EL RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Gracias Señor por la vida que nos das, por todas tus bendiciones que a diario vemos,
gracias por ser nuestro protector,
por cuidarnos de noche y de día.

“Una mujer hacendosa, ¿quién la hallará? Vale mucho más que las perlas. Su marido se fía de ella, y no le faltan riquezas. Le trae ganancias y no pérdidas todos los días de su vida... Abre sus manos al necesitado y extiende el brazo al pobre.”

La enseñanza del libro de Proverbios es profunda y práctica. Abre nuestros ojos para apreciar los dones que ya poseemos y que a menudo no notamos.

Se nos recuerda que el mensaje fundamental de Jesús es el amor y que su expresión está fundada en el respeto. Cuando trabajamos para hacer esta parte de nuestro hogar, con otras personas, o cuando tranquilamente reflexionamos, entonces comenzamos a apreciar de nuevo cuán afortunados somos de tener una buena esposa, un esposo amoroso, amigos leales.

Desafortunadamente, a veces fallamos en darnos cuenta cuán importante es mejorar nuestra vida familiar, trabajar en ella como meta principal, para que la paz de Dios, su presencia y alegría se encuentren dentro de nuestro hogar. Se convierten en una fuerza que impulsa nuestras vidas. Ahora es el momento de empezar.

¿Es Cristo parte de nuestra experiencia de vida? ¿Es la oración algo que llevo a mi familia a diario? ¿Reflejo alegría, pido perdón, y muestro mi preocupación e interés en lo que hacen mis hijos?

Recuerdo que teníamos en casa una pintura con el rostro de Cristo. Debajo estaba escrito: ‘Cristo es la cabeza de este hogar, el invitado que se convierte en anfitrión de cada comida, quien silenciosamente escucha cada conversación.’ ¿Es esta mi experiencia? Ojalá que podamos apreciar lo que los Proverbios nos enseñan hoy.
