PASTORS’ CORNER

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

“Everyone should see how unselfish you are. The Lord Himself is near. Dismiss all anxiety from your minds. Present your needs to God in every form of prayer and in petitions full of gratitude.

Then God’s own peace which is beyond understanding will stand guard over your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”...“The crowds asked John ‘What are we to do?’...the people were full of anticipation.”

At the midway point of Advent, we too can ask the question the crowds put to John the Baptist. We might preface it with another question: ‘What have we done thus far?’ What is the Lord asking of me during the next ten days? St. Paul is quite clear telling his audience to focus on the Lord, offering prayer, petitions and expressions of gratitude.

Do not fall into the trap of routine or busyness, without a moment each day of prayer that God’s peace may reign in your heart. Our novena of preparation can consist simply by turning to the Word of God, reflecting on the mystery of Jesus’ coming, and how we want Him to find us when we celebrate His birth. Then God’s own peace will be really with us.

EL RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

TERCER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

“Que la bondad de ustedes sea conocida por todos los hombres. El Señor está cerca. No se angustien por nada, y en cualquier circunstancia, recurran a la oración y a la súplica, acompañadas de acción de gracias, para presentar sus peticiones a Dios. Entonces la paz de Dios, que supera todo lo que podemos pensar, tomará bajo su cuidado los corazones y los pensamientos de ustedes en Cristo Jesús... La gente le preguntaba: ‘¿Qué debemos hacer?’ El pueblo estaba a la expectativa.”

A mitad de la época de Adviento podemos hacer la pregunta que la multitud le hizo a San Juan Bautista. Podemos antecederla con otra pregunta: ‘¿Qué hemos hecho hasta ahora?’ ¿Qué me pide el Señor en los próximos diez días? San Pablo es muy claro al decirle a su audiencia que se enfoque en el Señor, ofreciendo oración, peticiones y expresiones de agradecimiento.

No caiga en la trampa de rutina y ocupaciones, sin un momento diario para orar que la paz de Dios reine en nuestros corazones. Nuestra novena de preparación puede consistir simplemente en volcarnos a la Palabra de Dios, reflexionando en el misterio de la venida de Jesús, y de cómo queremos que El nos encuentre al celebrar Su Nacimiento. Entonces la propia paz de Dios Estará realmente con nosotros.
